

A thriving business in the Netherlands?

Opening a branch or expanding activities in the Netherlands? De Gier | Stam & lawyers and Care4HR provide all the Labour law , Pay roll, Human Resources and Tax assistance you need. We can help tackle any difficulties you may encounter as an employer. We manage your Dutch employment contracts, payroll and personnel administration, provide HR advice and assist with issues related to tax and labour laws. Experience our international approach with a personal touch.

Payroll, Tax and Human Resources matters

Care4HR is experienced in international HR issues and in helping foreign companies to set up and process their payroll in the Netherlands. We are specialised in employment tax, minimising tax liability, for example by identifying tax benefits and 30% rulings. We assist companies with their salary and payroll administration. We deliver sustainable HR policies and solve local HR issues in a practical way.

Labour law matters

De Gier | Stam and Lawyers can provide Dutch employment contracts and Personnel Handbooks or Policies. We can provide advice and assist in legal proceedings. De Gier | Stam has extensive experience in the broad spectrum of commercial labour law, for example: dismissal procedures (individual and collective redundancies), knowledge of the system and legislation regarding collective labour agreements, works councils, trade unions, European regulations, the harmonisation of terms of employment, legislation regarding illness, health and safety regulations and employers' liability and the regulation regarding the various forms of leave and working hours under Dutch law.
